To,

Sri Arvind Kejriwal
Hon'ble Chief Minister of Delhi,
3rd Level, A-wing, Delhi Secretariat, I.P. Estate
New Delhi-110002, India.

Most Respected Sir,

With due honour, we, the undersigned, for and on behalf of Bodo Sahitya Sabha, an Apex body of Bodo Community of Assam and some parts of other States of India would like to place before your honour the few lines for favour of drawing your kind attention and necessary action.

That Sir, the entire people of the country, would undoubtedly admit the fact that you are a popular Chief Minister of a popular Government. Your success and occupying the power of Delhi Government with absolute majority alone has shown a dazzling example of our country's effective democracy and we feel proud of it as an Indian.

But, the recent controversy that has been arisen out of appointment of Mrs. Shakuntala Doley Gamlin, an Assam based senior IAS officer from Arunachal Pradesh as the Chief Secretary has shocked every North Eastern people. Today, we are observing the confrontation between the constitutional Head, His Excellency, the Lieutenant Governor of Delhi Sri Najeeb Jung and your honour as Chief Minister itself over her appointment.

That Sir, being the people from North Eastern region, we must say that your reluctance to accept Mrs. Shakuntala Doley Gamlin as the Chief Secretary has hurt the sentiments of every North Eastern people. In this regard, the Bodo Sahitya Sabha is of the opinion that this attitude has proved that your honour is anti Tribal, anti North Eastern region and against entire women Community. Truly speaking, such act is an encouraging or provocative step to the miscreants of Delhi to involve in the anti social activities against the North Eastern people. We do feel that we can build India a powerful Nation by united effort but not aliening someone.

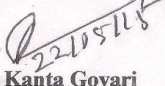

We, therefore, on behalf of Bodo Sahitya Sabha request your honour to pay respect to the sentiments of the people of North Eastern region as well as whole women Community.

With high regards

Yours faithfully,

For and on behalf of Bodo Sahitya Sabha

Sri Bisweswar Basumatary
(Vice- President)

Sri Nila Kanta Goyari
(Secretary)

Sri Kamala Kanta Mushahary
(General Secretary)
